

News Release

WYOMING LEGISLATIVE SERVICE OFFICE

FOR RELEASE Immediately
DATE October 22, 2021
CONTACT Ryan Frost, Legislative Information Officer
TO REACH 307-777-7881

WILLIAMS SWORN IN TO REPRESENT HOUSE DISTRICT 02

CHEYENNE – J.D. Williams of Lusk was sworn in as a member of the 66th Wyoming Legislature on Friday in the House Chamber of the Wyoming State Capitol in Cheyenne. Wyoming Supreme Court Chief Justice Kate M. Fox administered the oath of office and Speaker of the Wyoming House Eric Barlow presided over the ceremony.

Following the administration of the oath of office from Chief Justice Fox, Speaker Barlow and fellow legislators welcomed Williams to the Wyoming Legislature. Williams addressed those in attendance stating that it is a great privilege and responsibility serving the people of Wyoming.

Williams was appointed at a joint meeting of the Goshen, Niobrara, and Weston County Commissioners to serve the residents of House District 02 on Oct. 19 to fill the vacant seat left by former Rep. Hans Hunt, who resigned on Oct. 1.

Rep. Williams will serve on the House Travel, Recreation, Wildlife & Cultural Resources Committee until the end of the current term. —END—

Photo cutline (Courtesy Wyoming Legislative Service Office)

Williams Ceremony 1: Speaker of the Wyoming House Eric Barlow introduces Representative J.D. Williams before administration of the oath by Wyoming Supreme Court Chief Justice Kate M. Fox in the House Chamber of the Wyoming State Capitol in Cheyenne Friday.

Williams Ceremony 2: Wyoming Supreme Court Chief Justice Kate M. Fox administers the oath of office to J.D. Williams in the House Chamber of the Wyoming State Capitol in Cheyenne Friday.

Williams Ceremony 3: Representative J.D. Williams and Wyoming Supreme Court Chief Justice Kate M. Fox sign the official oath of office in the House Chamber of the Wyoming State Capitol in Cheyenne Friday.